“Jack may be the best speaker on the subject of WHY church folks should get out of the pews and get busy making the world a better place. He is at the same time gripping, funny, and motivating. He reminds us of Jesus' hope for his followers and the good they would do.”

Jack Jezreel, with a Master of Divinity Degree from the University of Notre Dame, spent six years in a Catholic Worker community, providing basic and emergency services to the homeless in Colorado, before directing his attention to transformative education, to encourage people of Catholic background to be engaged in outreach and social change.

Jack developed and is currently the Executive Director of JustFaith (www.justfaith.org), a nonprofit organization that creates and supports justice formation processes, and is a popular national speaker and teacher. JustFaith has had extraordinary results and has been recognized nationally as a potent strategy for empowering social ministry. The three largest poverty-focused Catholic organizations in the country – Catholic Charities USA, Catholic Campaign for Human Development and Catholic Relief Services – and the largest ecumenical hunger-focused Christian organization in the U.S., Bread for the World, are partners and promoters of JustFaith. Over eighteen thousand people in over one hundred Catholic dioceses and 1,000 Protestant churches have participated.

The vision of JustFaith speaks to life-giving choices on behalf of a world that struggles to survive

NEW Ecumenical and Catholic JustFaith classes are being formed at churches in Palo Alto, Mountain View, Sunnyvale, San Jose, and Campbell for Fall, 2009.
