Pope Francis
Bishop of Rome

Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina's capital city, on December 17, 1936. He studied and received a master's degree in chemistry at the University of Buenos Aires, but later decided to become a Jesuit priest and studied at the Jesuit seminary of Villa Devoto. He studied liberal arts in Santiago, Chile, and in 1960 earned a degree in philosophy from the Catholic University of Buenos Aires. Between 1964 and 1965 he was a teacher of literature and psychology at Inmaculada High School in the province of Santa Fe, and in 1966 he taught the same courses at the prestigious Colegio del Salvador in Buenos Aires. In 1967, he returned to his theological studies and was ordained a priest on December 13, 1969. After his perpetual profession as a Jesuit in 1973, he became master of novices at the Seminary of Villa Barilari in San Miguel. Later that same year, he was elected superior of the Jesuit province of Argentina and Uruguay. In 1980, he returned to San Miguel as a teacher at the Jesuit school, a job rarely taken by a former provincial superior. In May 1992 he was appointed auxiliary bishop of Buenos Aires. He was one of three auxiliaries and he kept a low profile, spending most of his time caring for the Catholic university, counseling priests and preaching and hearing confessions. On June 3, 1997, he was named coadjutor archbishop. He was installed as the new Archbishop of Buenos Aires February 28, 1998. On March 13, 2013, he was elected Bishop of Rome, succeeding Pope Benedict XVI, who resigned February 28, 2013.

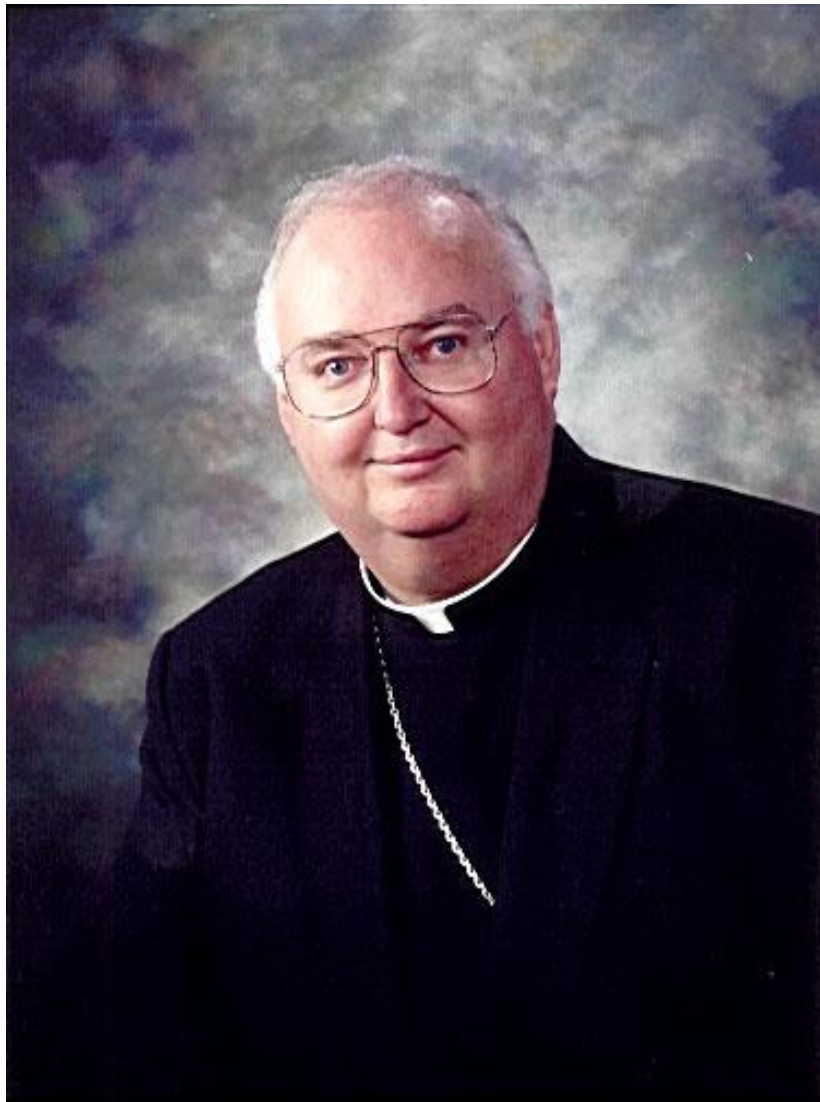

Pope Benedict XVI
Emeritus Bishop of Rome

Joseph Ratzinger, Pope Benedict XVI, was born at Marktl am Inn, Diocese of Passau (Germany) on April 16, 1927 (Holy Saturday) and was baptized on the same day. He received his priestly ordination on June 29, 1951. On 25 March 1977 Pope Paul VI named him Archbishop of Munich and Freising. On May 28 of the same year he received episcopal ordination. Paul VI made him a Cardinal with the priestly title of "Santa Maria Consolatrice al Tiburtino", during the Consistory of 27 June of the same year. The Holy Father elevated him to the Order of Bishops, assigning to him the Suburbicarian See of Velletri-Segni on 5 April 1993. On November 6, 1998 the Holy Father approved the election of Cardinal Ratzinger as Vice-Dean of the College of Cardinals, submitted by the Cardinals of the Order of Bishops. On November 30, 2002 he approved his election as Dean; together with this office he was entrusted with the Suburbicarian See of Ostia. On April 23, 2005 he was elected Bishop of Rome, succeeding Pope John Paul II who died April 2, 2005. He resigned the Papacy on February 28, 2013.

Most Rev. Oscar Cantú
Bishop of San José

Most Rev. Oscar Cantú, S.T.D was born December 5, 1966, in Houston, TX, the son of Ramiro and Maria de Jesus Cantú, natives of small towns near Monterrey in Mexico. He is the fifth of eight children, five boys, and three girls. Bishop Cantú attended Holy Name Catholic School and St. Thomas High School in Houston, and he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Dallas, TX. He received his Masters in Divinity and Masters in Theological Studies from the University of St. Thomas, also in Houston. He attended the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome Italy where he earned his S.T.L. Licentiate in Sacred Theology, as well as his S.T.D., Doctorate in Sacred Theology in Dogmatic Theology. Bishop Cantú was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Houston in 1994. He spent his priestly career working in parishes throughout the Houston metropolitan area. His first assignment was as parochial vicar at St. Christopher Parish. He also taught at the University of St. Thomas and at St. Mary's Seminary. He also served as pastor at Holy Name Parish. Bishop Cantú also participated in number of ministries and movements in Houston. He was involved in the Christian Family movement; conducted retreats with the youth of the CFM movement in the Galveston-Houston Archdiocese; and worked with the Engaged Encounter ministry. Bishop Cantú was also involved in The Metropolitan Organization (TMO) that addresses social issues in the community. Bishop Cantú was ordained a bishop in 2008 and was appointed Titular Bishop of Dardano and Auxiliary Bishop of San Antonio. In 2013, Bishop Cantú was appointed as second bishop of the Diocese of Las Cruces, NM. He was installed as bishop on February 28, 2013, by Metropolitan Archbishop, Most Rev. Michael J. Sheehan, Archbishop of Santa Fe. On July 11, 2018, it was announced by Most Rev. Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio, that Pope Francis had appointed Bishop Cantú as the Coadjutor Bishop of San José. A Mass of Welcome to the Diocese of San José was celebrated at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Joseph on September 28, 2018. Bishop Cantú succeeded as the third Bishop of San José on May 1, 2019.

Most Rev. Patrick J. McGrath, JCD
Bishop Emeritus of San José

Bishop McGrath was born June 11, 1945, in Dublin, Ireland, where he attended Catholic schools of the Sisters of the Holy Faith and the Marist Fathers. He entered Saint John Seminary, Waterford, Ireland in 1964 and was ordained to the priesthood in Waterford, June 7, 1970, for the Archdiocese of San Francisco. In 1977 he earned his doctorate in canon law at the Pontifical Lateran University, Rome. In 1979 Bishop McGrath became Officialis of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and was appointed rector and pastor of Saint Mary Cathedral in 1986. Ordained Auxiliary Bishop of San Francisco on Jan. 25, 1989, he then served the Archdiocese as Vicar for Clergy, Moderator of the Curia and Vicar for Parishes. On June 30, 1998, he was named by Pope John Paul II to be Coadjutor to the Bishop of the Diocese of San José. He was formally received into the diocese at a Mass of Welcome, September 17, 1998. Upon the retirement of Bishop Pierre DuMaine on November 27, 1999, Bishop Patrick Joseph McGrath became the second Bishop of San José. Bishop retired on May 1, 2019, and was succeeded by his Coadjutor, Bishop Oscar Cantú.

HISTORY OF THE DIOCESE OF SAN JOSÉ

The Diocese of San José is coterminous with the boundaries of Santa Clara County, which includes 15 cities/townships and some unincorporated areas under county jurisdiction. The Diocese of San José belongs to the Ecclesiastical Province of San Francisco, consisting of the Metropolitan See of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and the Dioceses of Honolulu, Las Vegas, Oakland, Reno, Sacramento, Salt Lake City, San José, Santa Rosa, and Stockton.

Beginning with the famous California missions, more than two centuries of Catholic life prepared Santa Clara County for its own diocese. Blessed Junipero Serra founded the first of California's historic Franciscan missions, San Diego de Alcalá, in 1769. In 1777, the Franciscan Fathers founded Mission Santa Clara de Asís, which later became Saint Clare Parish. Before his death at San Carlos Borromeo Mission, Carmel, in 1784, Father Serra established eight more missions and laid the groundwork for the whole chain of 21 missions.

Upper California was part of the Diocese of Sonora, Mexico, during the early days and, after 1840, it was under Bishop Francisco García Diego, the first bishop of Alta and Baja (Upper and Lower) California. Spanish Dominican Joseph Sadoc Alemany, OP, was bishop of Monterey when it was established in 1850, then became Archbishop of San Francisco when it was created in 1853. At that time dioceses were not divided along county lines; Gilroy and Morgan Hill remained part of the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles.

In 1922, Rome accepted county lines as diocesan boundaries, and Gilroy and Morgan Hill became part of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. When the dioceses of Oakland, Santa Rosa and Stockton were divided from the Archdiocese of San Francisco in 1962, Santa Clara County remained part of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Archbishop John R. Quinn implemented the final plans for the erection of the new Diocese of San José, and Santa Clara County was established as the Diocese of San José by Pope John Paul II on January 27, 1981.

Most Rev. Pierre DuMaine was named as the first bishop of the Diocese of San José, and Saint Patrick Church in San José was named the Cathedral. On the evening of March 18, 1981, during the solemn celebration of the First Vespers of the Feast of Saint Joseph, Archbishop Pio Laghi, Apostolic Delegate to the Church in the United States, and Archbishop Quinn, the Metropolitan, formally installed the first bishop of the new church and canonically erected the Diocese. In 1987, historic Saint Joseph Church was designated the Cathedral to replace the proto-cathedral, Saint Patrick Church. After extensive renovation, Saint Joseph Church was dedicated as a Cathedral in 1990. In 1995, Pope John Paul II designated the cathedral as a Minor Basilica and it became the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Joseph.

In 1997, Vicar for Clergy Rev. Richard Garcia was named by Pope John Paul II to become Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento, the first priest in the Diocese of San José to be so chosen.

On June 30, 1998, Most Rev. Patrick J. McGrath, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, was named by Pope John Paul II to become the Coadjutor to the Bishop of San José. Bishop McGrath was formally received into the Diocese at a Mass of Welcome, September 17, 1998. Upon the retirement of Bishop Pierre DuMaine on November 27, 1999, Bishop McGrath became the second Bishop of San José.

2006 marked the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Diocese of San José. On March 18, Bishop McGrath was the principal celebrant and Bishop DuMaine was the homilist at the Jubilee Mass that was celebrated at Saint Joseph Cathedral Basilica. Representatives of every parish were present, along with many of those who were 'founders' of the Diocese, a large majority of our diocesan clergy, and fifteen visiting bishops. In addition to this liturgy, Bishop McGrath made a Jubilee Visit to each of the Diocese's parishes and missions. During the Mass that is part of the visit, a tessera, or tile, engraved with the name of the parish was transferred from the parish Jubilee Cross and become part of the diocesan Jubilee Processional Cross. This Cross memorializes the 52 parishes and missions that were in existence at the time of this Jubilee.

2006 also marked the beginning of a $100 Million endowment and capital campaign, Rooted in Faith ~ Embracing Our Future. The funds raised by this campaign are dedicated to ensure that the Church of tomorrow will be able to be responsive to the pastoral needs of the Catholics of this Valley.

2011 marked the 30th anniversary of our Diocese. It was commemorated with a simple Mass of celebration on March 19, 2011. On May 25, Most Rev. Thomas A. Daly became the first Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of San José.

The purchase of a church and adjoining buildings in East San José was made possible by funds generated from the Capital Campaign and in the custody of the Catholic Foundation of Santa Clara County. This parish, the first established in the Diocese in over a decade, was dedicated as Our Lady of Refuge Parish on February 19, 2012.

On July 8, 2012, the Chinese Catholic Community was elevated to the status of Mission by Bishop Patrick J. McGrath, becoming the San José Chinese Catholic Mission.

On August 30, 2012, a three-alarm fire devastated Saint Patrick Proto-Cathedral, destroying its sacred worship space and rendering it unusable. Planning began in early 2013 to rebuild the church to meet the needs of its growing and ethnically diverse community. On April 28, 2013, Bishop McGrath signed a decree to rename the parish after Our Lady of La Vang to reflect the church's status as a personal parish for Vietnamese Catholics. The thriving parish continues its historic commitment to full ministry to all of its parishioners, in Vietnamese, Spanish, and English.

On Sunday, November 16, 2014, a four-alarm fire destroyed most of Holy Cross Church. The new church was dedicated on May 19, 2018.

Bishop Oscar Cantú was appointed Coadjutor Bishop of San José and welcomed to the Diocese of San José on September 28, 2018.

Bishop McGrath retired on May 1, 2019 and was succeeded by his Coadjutor, Bishop Oscar Cantú.

The first Bishop of San José, Pierre DuMaine, died on June 13, 2019.

“For my house shall be a house of prayer for all people.” – Isaiah 56:7

In their 1978 Pastoral Statement on People with Disabilities, the U.S. Catholic Bishops wrote:

"It is essential that all forms of the liturgy be completely accessible to people with disabilities, since these forms are the essence of the spiritual tie that binds the Christian community together. To exclude members of the parish from these celebrations of the life of the Church, even by passive omission, is to deny the reality of that community."

The National Endowment for the Arts commissioned the development of symbols that indicate areas of access in public facilities. These symbols are briefly described below. As our parishes are welcoming places for all people, we have included those symbols appropriate for each parish on their parish page.

	The diagram of an ear indicates that enhanced hearing devices or technology are provided.	"Large Print" signifies print in 18 point or larger.
The telephone receiver above a keyboard notifies the public that a TT (text telephone) or TDD (telecommunications device for the deaf) is available,		The "AD" inside an outline of a TV screen means that a film or video production includes an audio description of the visual action taking place, while
while the receiver symbol indicates that amplification is available on selected telephones.		the other "AD" design indicates that a production (or Mass) will be audio described for those who are blind or visually impaired.
The hands alert those interested that sign language is provided.		The walking figure with a cane can be used to indicate the access needs of those with vision limitations are fully addressed.
The "CC" signifies that a given film or video-tape is closed captioned.		The familiar international symbol indicates accessible facilities, paths, rest rooms and parking areas for people with limited mobility.
The design which includes a set of six dots indicates that print materials are also available in Braille upon request.		The question mark may be used to indicate the location of an information desk.

The Diocesan Special Needs Ministry assists parishes in welcoming and including persons with disabilities and deafness into all aspects of parish life – liturgies, catechesis, sacramental preparation, and parish programs and events. For questions or information regarding access, sign language interpreters, or ministry to people with disabilities, please contact the diocesan Department for Evangelization, (408) 983-0125.

CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT STANFORD.....(650) 725-0080

Directions to Stanford's Memorial Church: From 280 take Page Mill Rd. (East) exit to Junipero Serra. Turn left on Junipero Serra and then turn right at Campus Drive East. About midway through the Campus Drive circle turn left on Palm Drive. As you drive up Palm Drive you come to the "Oval" which sends you around to the right. Parking is available on either side of the Oval and in some parking areas nearby (watch for parking areas restricted to permits only). Walking to the top of the Oval, go up the stairs and through the Main Quad immediately beyond which, across a large courtyard, is Memorial Church.

From 101 if you take University Ave. exit to Palo Alto stay on University Ave. which, when it crosses El Camino Real, becomes Palm Drive.

From 101 if you take the Embarcadero West exit, stay on Embarcadero which, when it crosses El Camino Real, becomes Galvez. From Galvez turn right on Campus Drive and then left on Palm Drive.

EASTERN CATHOLIC CHURCHES WITH PARISHES OR MISSIONS IN THE DIOCESE OF SAN JOSÉ

Delegate for Eastern Rite Churches in the Diocese of San José Rev. José Antonio Rubio

Coordinator of the Eastern Catholic Awareness Project, Eastern Catholic Pastoral Association of Northern California Rev. James K. Graham

Since the Second Vatican Council we have come to understand the groups of Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with the Holy See not as rites, but as Churches equal in rank with the Latin Church and with their own autonomy. These Churches originate from a particular homeland, usually in Eastern Europe or the Middle East, where the head of that Church (Patriarch or Major Metropolitan) resides. Through immigration there are sizable communities of Eastern Catholics in this country. For them, dioceses (called "Eparchies") and parishes have been established. There follows a listing of those parishes within the territory of our diocese that belong to one of these Eastern Catholic Churches.
